TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS." DEAR SIR, - Referring to my last letter our to-day's issue, and to the remark previously made that in order to accomplish the sanitary regeneration of Hougkong the nature and charocter of the people must be changed, I further remark that these changes are far more import ant than any which can be offeeted in the form and position of their houses. These latter conditions are of very great importance, but the are dominated by the habits and character of the "Remembering the pit from which we have

PROBLEM CLATTON An Auglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office. Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled, All the new words which the Chinese have of latevenrs been compelled to coin to express the numerous cojects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in solence generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extense. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accounts being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained office typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the sine of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of IONGKONGTELEPHONEEXCHANGE space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore chara-
